Llewellyn M. Pedersen was born February 24, 1944 to Thomas and Clara (Matheson) Moore in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. She graduated from Brazosport High School, Freeport, Texas in 1962; while in high school she was the only girl to be picked to be a member of the chemistry club. Following high school Llewellyn attended the University of Texas (UT) where she earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics with a minor in chemistry and geology.

Llewellyn moved to Big Piney, Wyoming in 1983 and instantly fell in love with the mountains. While living in Big Piney she met her husband Bruce C. Pedersen; they were married on August 19, 1984, in Neligh, NE. The couple lived in Big Piney, Wyoming; Lawrence, Kansas and settled in Casper, Wyoming in 1987.

Prior to Llewellyn moving to Wyoming she worked at TraCor, in Texas, on various military projects. While living in Big Piney she worked in the library, surrounded by books that she loved; later in Kansas she proofread periodicals and dissertations for PhD student candidates attending the University of Kansas, and became a Mary Kay consultant. Upon moving to Casper, she served as an election judge for Natrona County for 22 years and was a Precinct Committee Woman, she also taught mathematics, and chemistry for 6 years at Paradise Valley Christian School.

She was also very active in the Casper Christian Women's Club, the Natrona County Historical Society, the Campaign for Liberty Committee and the Osher Lifelong Learning (OLI) at the Casper College, was a Mary Kay beauty consultant for over 35 years and participated in the Wyoming Senior Olympics.

Llewellyn enjoyed traveling, having visited Israel 4 times, Europe and Canada once, and camping all over her beloved Rocky Mountain range. She also enjoyed reading, studying the bible, learning anything new about nature, spending time with family and friends, and photography. Llewellyn had a constant desire and never-ending thirst for learning as she was constantly taking classes and trying new things.

An Answer

Everything is born to die –

The goal of Life is Death.

*Yet still we mourn and still we cry
and turn to God demanding, “Why,
Why did my loved one have to die?”*

*But if we’d stop to think we’d know
That Death is just a one-way door,
and each must pass thru once, also,
To join the ones who’ve gone before.*

(This hand written poem was found in Llewellyn’s bible and is believed to have been written by her.)
