

Church Security/Phone

A MINISTRY DESCRIPTION FOR LOCAL CHURCH LEADERS

Introduction

As Jesus gives insight into the nature of His church using the symbol of the body in I Corinthians 12, so it is that when we join the Church we become “members” of the body of Christ and are equipped for specific functions by the Holy Spirit. God wills that the various “body parts” (members) function effectively toward the common goal of the church: making disciples of Jesus Christ.

It is an erroneous concept that the clergy have a “sacred calling” and the general membership only a “secular calling.” This concept impedes the progress of the church by leading some to believe their contributions are less important. In fact, the New Testament teaches that all members of the body of Christ are ministers of Jesus Christ. There are necessary differences in function, but the status of all leaders is the same.

You have been called to function as a member of your local church congregation’s security/phone team. The God who calls is able to sustain you as you cooperate with Him.

The ministry and function of the security/phone team in a small church is part of the deacons job description, but the Beaverton SDA Church as separated this job as an unique job position onto its self.

Duties of the Security Team

The ministry to which a person is called when he or she becomes a member of the security/phone team includes the following duties:

Security.

They will care for the security of the church property by doing the following:

1. They will issue all keys and keep track of who has those keys.
2. Maintain the church security and fire alarm system.
3. Work with the maintenance group to see that all locks are in good working order. And that night lighting is supplied where needed and working.
4. Make sure that we pass our yearly fire marshal inspection in regard to the fire alarm

Phone.

They will also care for the phone system and see that it is in good working order.
