Announcements

Sanctuary Remodel - We want to thank you for your understanding during our remodel process. We will be installing a new sound system and a new video system in the near future. Please understand that our current sound system is temporary and we are currently without our video system. We apologize to our parents of young children because the service is not able to broadcast into the Parents' Room, but it will again when the new video system is installed.

The Pathfinder club will be doing a Car Wash tomorrow from 3-5pm. Hope you can come!

The ministry leaders who serve in the ministry session 2017 to 2019 as well as ministry leaders who will serve during the ministry session 2019-2021 are invited to a Ministry Leader Encouragement Event/Supper on July 27, from 6:30-7:30pm. This Event will include supper and a candle light prayer ceremony. We appreciate you personally and corporately for the care you give to the church and the community. We want to thank you and encourage you personally for taking the responsibility of leadership for the ministry God has called you to organize and lead. Please join us in The Gathering Place tonight for an evening of inspiration, encouragement, prayer and good food.

Response Worship Summit...You are invited to attend the second annual Response worship summit at College View Church from Thursday, October 31 through Sabbath, November 2. Come participate in three days of rich worship experiences, captivating speakers, biblical preaching, and expert equipping. If you are a pastor, worship leader, or a worshipper who longs to get beyond the show and back to the substance, join us as this year we explore worship through the riches of inspiration, instruction, and experience within the ancient prayer book of scripture: the Psalms. For more information and to reserve your seat, please visit www.responsesummit.org.

Dr. Zach Owen, an oral surgeon in Scottsbluff, is hosting a medical clinic in Western Nebraska on November 4 and 5. Many practitioners have volunteered, but they really need optometrists. Everything you need will be provided. He just needs you to provide your expertise. If you are a Nebraska licensed medical practitioner, interested and willing to offer your services to the community at no charge, contact him for more information. You can contact him by phone at his office: 308-633-1760; cell: 308-641-1160; or email at zach@owenoralsurgery.com

With our recent investment in our sanctuary, we'd ask families with kids to choose snacks that are less messy (crackers tend to be the main culprits!) We want the worship experience to go smoothly for you and we want to enjoy our sanctuary for a long time to come.

Urgent request from Adventist Child India: A lot of donors have been lost because they are old or sick and some have died. 183 children have lost their sponsors and we have over 300 new applications for sponsors. It costs $35/month. Pray about it and if you are willing to sponsor please contact Charlene Binder (Goodwill Ambassador for ACI) at 402-489-1702 or email rbinder42@gmail.com. I have profiles of several children you may choose from.

Message of Encouragement: Kendra Carlson

I spent a few years of my childhood in southern California and they were my happiest. I'd lived in prettier places, like Oregon and Washington and when I think back to our time in California, I remember a lot of brown. Brown mountains lined the highway and brown yards boasted gravel instead of grass. The brown was only broken up by pale green cacti, eucalyptus trees and palms. Nothing like the deep greens of the northwest.

But there was one big reason I liked it there: my grandparents. It was the only time I enjoyed living in the same town as them. And boy, did we make the most of it. We went on bike rides and camped. We drove up mountains in Grandpa's convertible and helped Grandma mind her store. They knew my favorite soda was root beer and always had it for me if we went on a picnic. Grandma and Grandpa thought we were special and they acted like it was a treat to have us along. I felt carefree with them.

It makes me think I wouldn't care if heaven was a dry, brown desert. I can't wait to live in the same place as God and see how much He loves me. I want to watch His face light up when I come around. I want to tell Him things He already knows and see He still likes to hear me say them. If He's made me a mansion, I'll never forget how well He knows me because He's put all my favorites in it.

There's a photo of my grandpa and me. He's sitting on a picnic table, hugging me, with a half-eaten apple in one hand. That's how real it'll be. That's how real it is. God is crazy about us, so we have nothing to be afraid of. Nothing at all.

Youth Group Information:

This last Wednesday we had a youth social and I did not remember correctly the dates Pastor Caleb gave me. I am really sorry for the mix up of where and what we were doing!

This Wednesday July 24 at 6:30-8:30pm we are having our last summer youth social in the church kitchen. We will do our version of the TV show Chopped, so come prepared to be creative with food! And bring a friend...the more the merrier.

Friday, July 26 will be Pizza and Parables from 7-8:30pm. We will then resume the school year schedule with Pizza and Parables on the second Friday of the month.
