The Other Side

Many hearts are broken.

Many eyes have cried.

*But many now rejoice with you
there on the other side.*

*Although we long to have you here
and wish you hadn't died, we know there's joy and happiness
there on the other side.*

*With faith we'll find the needed strength to help us make it through,
for the other side is where, one day,
we'll be again with you.*
