

Adrian Donna Lou Day was born on April 1, 1930, near Wood Lake, Minnesota, the daughter of Robert and Huldah (Doose) Henke. She grew up in the Redwood Falls community, was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith and graduated from Redwood Falls High School in 1947. Following high school, she began working in sales.

On June 7, 1950, Adrian was united in marriage to Royce W. Day and made their home in Raymond in 1956. She worked for many years as the librarian at the Raymond Public Library, retiring in 1999. Royce passed away in 2014, and later that year, Adrian moved into Bethesda Grand in Willmar.

Adrian was a member of the Raymond United Methodist Church, Order of the Eastern Star, a former Cub Scout Leader and past Raymond City Council member.

Adrian enjoyed art, painting, flowers and reading. Her family was the most important to her and she cherished all the times spent together on Lake Florida.

She is survived by four children, David Day (and special friend, Cecile LeTourneau) of Raymond, Nancy (and Dennis) Endres of Willmar, Dean Day of Belview and April (and Christopher) Eisenberg of Champlin; fifteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren; one great great granddaughter and a daughter-in-law, Michelle Day of New London, besides other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Royce; one son, Duane; three sisters, Donna Lou, Lucella and Ardella; and one brother, William.

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want...

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters...

*He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake...*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

*for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff,
they comfort me. Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine*

*enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
