

William Jackson "Jack" Harrison, 82 of Bowling Green died Friday, August 2, 2013 at the Hospice House of Southern Kentucky.

The Grayson County native was a son of the late William Rumsey and Elva Elizabeth Meredith Harrison and was preceded in death by a sister, Modell Vincent. He was a builder, high school teacher and retired superintendent of mechanical services at Western Kentucky University, a faithful member, trustee and usher for many years of Cave Mill General Baptist Church and a Korean War Navy veteran.

Survivors include his wife, Joyce Woosley Harrison; two sons, Daniel B. Harrison and William A. "Tony" Harrison (Vickie); two grandchildren, Petty Officer 3rd Class USN William Andrew Harrison and Nathan Jackson Harrison; a special niece Agnes Seaton (Leon), several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral service 4:00 p.m. Sunday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Mt Pleasant Cemetery in Edmonson County with military honors. Visitation 2:00-8:00 p.m. Saturday and 12:00-4:00 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers expressions of sympathy may be made to Hospice House of Southern Kentucky, 5872 Scottsville Rd., Bowling Green, KY 42104 or Gideon's International

Send Condolences