Philippians 4:6

Pinehouse Drive Church Closure

COVID-19 continues to be a prevalent health concern and has halted life as we know as we choose to protect our vulnerable populations through self-isolation/social distancing. Based on our updated risk level we have decided to not hold a physical Church service in light of the recommendations from health officials in our local area. Our church doors will remain closed. As such all Pinehouse Drive activities and programs will not be meeting due to health regulations.

Foundations Evangelistic Series: The why behind the what

Pinehouse Drive would like to reach out to our local community with the in-depth, comprehensive studies that dive into current events and how what is happening in today's world relates to what we find in the Bible. Each evangelistic sermon will be focused on an Adventist fundamental belief that describes the why behind what we believe. Please Join us today at 2:30pm on live stream.

Prayer Meeting Continues Every Wednesday

Just a note to say that though the church has closed its doors to public meetings during this coronavirus time, we will still hold a prayer that this evening, at 7pm, via a Zoom conference call. We hope you can attend online.

- Join us daily on YouTube/Facebook/Instagram for our Daily Bread Devotional Thought.

April 2021. From the board of directors, the delegates that were chosen by the church will remain unless otherwise advised. Delegates please check emails for further information for

Saskatchewan Women's Retreat Postponed

Ladies, in consideration of the uncertainty of the times, to be proactive, show responsibility and respect for all those around us we are cancelling the Saskatchewan Women's Retreat. We will revisit in the future once things settle down. We will be in touch. May God be with you all. Remain calm and stay faithful as we serve a God who is in control. “FEAR NOT, For I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” Isaiah 41:10.
