Our Keepsake

*Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories,
Of the ones we loved so much.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.*

*G*ail Kay (Torness) Strobl was born on May 25, 1943, in Milbank, SD. She was the daughter of Oscar and Anne (Skogsberg) Torness. Gail grew up in Milbank and graduated from Milbank High School with the Class of 1961. On January 31, 1970, she was united in marriage with Michael Strobl. She was blessed with six children: Dawn, Beth, Jeff, Eric, Michelle, and Laurel. She worked for her parents for many years at Torness Furniture. She also worked on the farm alongside her husband, Mike.

Gail was active in 4-H and loved dogs and horses. Her creative side enjoyed crafting, needle felting, knitting, ceramics, and making pheasant hat bands. She was a lifelong member of American Lutheran Church. Gail adored her family and she always put her children and grandchildren first. Family was so important to her, and she was very proud of her Torness family heritage. Thanks to the internet and social media, she was able to reconnect with family and friends. She enjoyed doing yardwork and was proud of her landscaping around the farm site.

Gail is survived by her husband of 53 years, Mike Strobl of Twin Brooks, SD; children: Dawn Gross of South Shore, SD; Beth (Mark) St. Martin of Milbank, SD; Jeff Strobl of Ramsey, MN; Eric (Jessica) Strobl of Dell Rapids, SD; Michelle (Gary) Reil of Sioux Falls, SD; and Laurel Strobl of Sioux Falls, SD; brother, Gene (Betty) Torness of Big Stone City, SD; 18 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; son-in-law, Ryon Gross; grandsons: Ryan Koch and Josh Gross; and her in-laws: Walter and Ida Strobl.
