GOD HAS A PURPOSE for your life. If that weren't true, He'd have taken you home to heaven at the moment of salvation. Do you ever wonder why He left you here?

The Lord intends to influence others through you. Our purpose is to be a vessel through which Christ overflows to others—touching those who hurt and desperately need a Savior.

Scripture clearly defines the believer's purpose. Aligning ourselves with God's intentions for His children—loving others, witnessing, and serving—bring us great satisfaction. In fact, we're still on earth not merely to hear more teaching but to act on it and share with others what we learn.
