

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me*

*I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too*

*When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love*

*But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne*

*He said This Is Eternity
And all I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But here it starts anew*

Celebrating the Life of Diane R. Lansing
May 6, 1959 - March 17, 2023

Our beautiful mother, Diane Lansing, took her last breath at home surrounded by her children and family on March 17, 2023 after a courageous battle with cancer. She was 63 years old. Diane was born on May 6, 1959 in Roseau, MN to John and Doris (Amundson) Billberg. She graduated from Roseau High School in 1977 and received her bachelor's degree in nursing from the College of St. Scholastica in 1981.

Diane was married in 1986. Although the marriage ended in divorce, it brought about the greatest blessings of her life - her children, Ryan and Sarah.

Upon moving to Fargo in 1993, Diane worked for two years as an RN for Hospice of the Red River Valley. She also began working at Elim Care Center, which led to a 20-year career. After leaving Elim in 2013, Diane remained on as a volunteer until the building was destroyed by a fire in 2020. Diane was a nurse through and through, committing her life to the service of others. When health issues required an early retirement, she continued to selflessly devote her time to volunteering for a variety of causes. Diane enjoyed writing, authoring a blog for the past six years. NursingHomeVolunteer.com provided education, inspiration, and support for volunteers in senior living communities.

Our mom leaves us with a lifetime of incredible memories. She was the best mom we could have ever asked for and we are so fortunate for the time we had together. We are forever grateful to have received her love, compassion, and kindness.

Diane was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her two children, Ryan Lansing of Boston, MA and Sarah Lansing of Breckenridge, MN; her sister, Linda (Tim) Andersen of Karlstad, MN; niece, Christy Andersen; nephews, Michael, Kyle, and Ben Andersen; sister-in-law, Lorrie Lansing; and Diane's best friend, John Nelson.
