Nettie F. Rueb was born on December 20, 1934 in Streeter ND, the daughter of John and Lydia Buck. She grew up on the family farm and attended schools in the Streeter area.

In 1954, Nettie married Oscar Rueb in Streeter. They made their home in Linton until 1955 when they moved to Bismarck. Nettie worked at Kroll's Kitchen, the State Capital Cafeteria, St. Alexius Hospital, and at K-Mart.

She enjoyed embroidering and entertaining family and friends. She was devoted to her faith and church. She took part in Women's Missionary Council and taught Sunday School for many years.

Nettie is survived by her husband Oscar, two children: Joy Rueb and Lloyd Rueb all of Bismarck; siblings, Leroy Buck, Vivian Hanson, Marlys Grasl and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings, Alvin, Esther, Edna, Odella, Laverne and Virginia.

*He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust." Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler And from the perilous pestilence.
He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.
You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.
A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.
Only with your eyes shall you look, And see the reward of the wicked.
Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, your dwelling place,
No evil shall befall you,
Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.
You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.
"Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he has known My name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him.
With long life I will satisfy him, And show him My salvation."*

-PSALM 91:1-16
