The family of Michael Morgan would like to extend their sincere gratitude to everyone for all their love, support, condolences, and kind words in this difficult time. Michael will forever live on in our hearts and will be missed by all.

A Letter To My Father

To my beloved dad in heaven, your absence is a void that can never be filled and yet your presence lingers and the memories and lesson you left behind you were more than a father. You were my hero, a mentor, and a steadfast source of support. Your guidance and unwavering love have been the cornerstone of my life, and your strength and wisdom continues to shape the person I am today the values you instilled in me and the memories we created together are a testimony of your endurance and legacy though I can no longer share memories with you I find comfort in countless time we laughed learned and simply enjoyed each other company your love remains a guiding light in my heart

while you may have left this world

the bond we share is unbreakable you are forever in my thoughts

I love you.

In Loving Memory

Life Story

Michael Morgan was born July 17, 1963, in Waterville Mississippi to Doris Jean Lee and Claud Morgan.

Michael worked as a chef for many years in Kansas City, MO. Michael met Rosie in Kansas City, MO. Rosie had one child already when Michael and Rosie fell in love, they added 3 more kids to the family because one wasn't enough. Altogether they had 4 daughters Regina Shaw, Florine Shaw, Ashley Shaw, and they saved the best for last Rosie Shaw; believe it or not he looked at me and said the job is done no more kids, and I agreed with him.

Michael and Rosie got married November 1, 1994. Michael love fixing on cars, and he loved to cook. Michael loved being around his family and friends, he loved playing "old school" music, and he also love rapping with his nephews; he wasn't that good at it, but they didn't care they just wanted to be around their favorite uncle. Michael also loved keeping his grandkids he was happy that he had a big family.

Michael Morgan departed his life on June 7, 2024, at 5:31a.m. with family by his side. Micheal's daughter, Florine Mack; brother, Darryl Brown; his niece, Felica Cooper; and his father, Claud Morgan preceded in death.

Michael Morgan leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Rosie Morgan who he loved very much; his Children, Regina, Ashley, and Rosie; his mother, Doris; and his siblings, Alice, Margaret, Joanna, Linda, Michelle, Jean, and Barry. He also leaves 16 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren, 33 nieces, and 24 nephews.
