OH, MY SWEET BABY

Oh my sweet baby, I may not hear your sweet voice or see your beautiful face every day, but you will always be in my heart, the heartbeat that will keep me alive. I enjoyed watching you grow into the man you have become. You have given me so many reasons to be proud of you. My proudest moment was when I gave birth to you. You was taken too soon, I guess God has bigger and better plans for you. I promise I will cherish all of our memories we had together. My sweet baby you will truly be missed. Forever my heartbeat.

Love, Dukes

LETTER TO MY HEART

Hey baby brother, you were the light in every room you entered. That smile and goofy personality will be missed the most. Although you were my baby brother you were someone I looked up to. You had your whole life ahead of you in such a short period of time you made a huge impact. You have always made me so proud, beating all the odds that were set against you. You came out on top every time. You have showed me that we can't keep living like we have all the time in the world. Start winning now! I love you so much baby boy and Ima finish what we started, continue to watch my back.

By Maya

As I speak these spoken words it can't amount to the words, I wish I had spoke before your ascension.

To great beyond that just got a whole lot greater due to your untimely departure Keeps me going knowing that my little brother is still over my shoulder watching, listening (pause) smiling giving me that protection that once was mine So believe me when I say I still can't believe this happened

This jaw dropping, head scratching, these tears of confusion of trying to cope with telling your story in past tense...I'm not ready yet To let go of this brotherly bond that's held together by brotherly love that was forged by brotherly arms that just got heavier.

As I carry you through the threshold just know this isn't goodbye It's more like see you soon because our journey together is not over.

Love Myles

Fair well our Brother

Fair well our brother

Fair well our friend

Life will be so unfair until we see you again

Your giant smile;

Your laugh so loud

The moments and memories we've had will just have to do for now.

Angel wings you deserve

Just not right now

Fair well our brother

Fair well our friend

Love Toya

Masir's LIFE STORY

Masir Shamar Williams was born in Philadelphia Pennsylvania, on February 15, 2002, to Dalshe Stratford and Gregory Williams. He attended Universal Audenried Charter School and later attended De LaSalle Vocational where he received his diploma and General Carpentry Certification in 2019.

Masir was affectionally known as "Sir". He loved playing basketball, football, and watching the game with his parents and siblings. He enjoyed hanging out and acting silly with his family and friends.

Masir was family oriented, loved, and comforted everyone in his family and always put his family first. He was a loveable person and had a great aura about himself. Everyone he met loved the genuine person he was. He was always respectful, kind, and generous. He was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Masir was ambitious, focused, and worked hard to make his future brighter. In September 2022, Masir was accepted into the City of Philadelphia Future Track Training Program with the Streets Department. At the end of the program, he received an official position with the Streets Department as an Engineering Aide Science Technician Trainee. Masir was excited to finally start a career he would be proud of.

On Thursday, September 7, 2023, God sent his angel to take Masir home. He will be missed greatly as a loving son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, friend, and coworker. Family gatherings will be different without him as he joins his grandmother's Tina Stratford and Vivian Williams in heaven.

Our Hope for Masir's Legacy is that his life represents a young black man's courage.

Courage to dare to dream to be something other than a stereotype.

Courage to charter your own path.

Courage to listen, not to be afraid to be different. Masir represents young black men all over the World that want more for themselves and aren't afraid to take necessary steps, do the necessary work in order to turn that dream into a reality, so to us Masir is the example of Courage. See it's a difference between a talker and a doer. Masir was never much of a "Talker" he was more of a doer, and to be so young that takes Courage...COURAGEOUS is what we will always remember Masir as!
