

“Tex” Abraham Vernon Munder, was born February 12, 1941 to George and Grace (Jerome) Munder. He spent his first 14 years on the family farm and going to country school. In 1955, the family moved to New Salem. There he was active working as a farm hand for neighbors and friends. Soon after moving to New Salem, Tex found the Backsen Farm and spent many days there enjoying friendship and the activities going on. Bill and his family were very special to him. Tex has always loved horses and anything involving horses. There he was to continue to nurture that love and ride. Tex was a character, his very own character, and was never afraid of showing himself to the world in the things he said and did. He was strong, brave, enduring and loving. He enjoyed his friendships and loved to laugh. Tex completed his circle of life on September 21, 2019 leaving sister, Eunice Bueligen, Dora (David) Bartow and Betty Hampleman; sister-in-law, Mary (Duane) Munder; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his loving family, Parents, George and Grace; sister, Dorothy Jenson; brothers, George Jr., Willard, and Duane; brothers-in-law, Edwin Jenson, Roger Bueligen, and Tom Hampleman. His Spirit is fondly remembered by his Elm Crest Family and many friends and family.

All the wild horses, Tethered with tears in their eyes, May no man's touch ever tame, may no man's reigns ever chain you, and may no man's weight ever defrayed your soul, and as for the clouds just let them roll, Roll away, Roll away, As for the clouds Just let them roll, Roll away, Roll away

 Leith: Vernon
 Spring like youthful A form of Vernon
 he is taciturn in dealing with people someone who charms
 all he meets has a strong love for nature there are never too many for him to love accurate, and he is of untarnished being well groomed is important to him he has his head on right accomplishments whenever he sets out to do

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
 He makes me lie down in green pastures:
 He leads me beside quiet waters.
 He restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for you are with me; your rod and your staff they comfort me.
 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies: You anoint my head with oil: my cup overflows.
 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM
