A Better Place

Your light no longer shines on earth,
but glows in Heaven's skies.
While Heaven is rejoicing,
tears are falling from our eyes.

We love you beyond measure.
It's so hard to let you go.
We are going to miss you
much more than you could know.

You touched the hearts of everyone
on earth you ever knew,
with acts of love and kindness
which are typical of you.

The memory of your life
will remain forever dear.
The world is a better place
because you tarried here.
