The Obituary

Angela Olliver, 61, was born in Goldsboro to Mrs. Louise and William Robinson Sr. on March 2, 1962. She attended Southern Wayne Senior High School and later attended the University of Mount Olive. It was at her time in Mount Olive that she met the love of her life, Andrade Olliver I. The two dated for a few years before eventually tying the knot and starting a family.

Angela was a visionary and one of her many passions included being of service to people. She worked in many managerial positions over the years involving health care and sales. She was truly a "Jack of all trades". She was an avid animal lover and cared deeply for her pets. She enjoyed cooking, interior design, shopping, dancing, and traveling. She loved nothing more than the fellowship of her children and grandchildren. She was a very virtuous woman and her light shined so bright it affected many different people. She was a generous and humble soul that would absolutely give her last. Her influence will remain over the many lives that she blessed during her lifetime. Angela quietly parted on June 28, 2023 as a result of an acute illness.

She is preceded in death by her father, William Robinson Sr.

She is survived by family that will forever cherish her memories: husband, Andrade Olliver I; two daughters, Andrea Olliver Wiggins (Leonard) and La' Keshia Olliver; son, Andrade Olliver II (Tiffany) mother, Louise James; four siblings, William Robinson Jr, Edna Robinson, Willa Ryals (Tony), and Fred James Jr; five granddaughters, La'Miya Freeman, Jase'lle Brown, Kayleigh Olliver, Kyndall Olliver, and Cassidy Olliver; two grandsons, Patera "Praise" Freeman II and Shabazz McKinney II. She leaves behind a host of beloved nieces, nephews, and friends.

God. Family. Love

*Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also,
and he praiseth her.*
