

Norvin Miller, 74, of Bowling Green, went to be with the Lord at 8:00 p.m. June 16, 2015 at the Medical Center. The Native of Jefferson County was born May 1, 1941 to the late Dewey Parker Miller, Sr. and the late Vesta Lewis Miller. He was preceded in death by a brother Maurice D. Miller and a sister, Dorothy Holthouser.

His survivors include his wife of 53 years, Phyllis Cosby Miller; one son, Norvin Hugh Miller and his wife Margaret of Elizabethtown; one daughter, Kimberly Miller McQuitty and her husband Dirck of Bowling Green; one granddaughter, Mackenzie Ann Miller of Elizabethtown. Also surviving is a brother, Parker Miller, Jr. of Bowling Green; two sisters, Grace Lowe of Smiths Grove and Barbara Brown and husband Tom of Showlow, AZ; three nephews and seven nieces.

Norvin was a retired pipefitter and a 50 year member of Local 502 in Louisville, KY. He also was a part-time farmer and co-owner with his wife of Hickory Hill Kennels where they raised and showed miniature schnauzers and miniature dachshunds for 20 years. He loved the outdoors and his farm located in Riverside, KY. There he enjoyed many years of hunting and 4 wheeler riding. His hobby was gun collecting and gun-smithing. Due to his mechanical abilities, he was known to be able to fix anything.

A celebration of his life will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, June 26 with visitation from 12-2 p.m. at Hardy & Son Funeral Chapel on Louisville Road. Since cremation was chosen, in lieu of flowers expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to the Bowling Green Warren County Humane society Animal Shelter, 1925 Old Louisville Rd., Bowling Green, KY 42101

He was loved and will be sadly missed by family and friends.

Send Condolences