The Day God Took My Mama Home

A million times I've needed you
A million times I've cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly;
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a space,
Where no one can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
Part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much -
Whatever the part.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her Story

Saundra Yvonne Wong was born August 29, 1946 to the late Benjamin Robinson and Beatrice Canada in Philadelphia, PA. She gained her wings and departed from her earthly home on September 8, 2024. Saundra grew up as a Baptist and later on sang for the Philadelphians for Christ Choir.

Saundra spent her summers in Maryland on her family's farm picking tomatoes, but eating more than she picked with her cousin Thelma.

Saundra was educated in the Philadelphia School System. As a teenager, Saundra was an avid swimmer and soon became a lifeguard. Saundra was also involved in modeling, dancing, and skating. Saundra was such an exceptional skater that the routines done on ice she could do on wood.

In addition to modeling, dancing, and skating Saundra also enjoyed singing. Her enjoyment of singing led to a journey of singing background for many famous musicians.

Saundra worked in the retail industry for a decade before beginning her journey as a barmaid for over thirty years. Saundra eventually left working for the bar scene to begin working for the Philadelphia Prison system. Saundra also worked for and retired from the Philadelphia International Airport in February 2017 to enjoy a life with family.

In Saundra's free time she enjoyed going to the casino, traveling, catering, spending time with family and friends, as well as being a handy woman. Oh and let's not forget baking her famous pound cake that everyone LOVED.

Saundra was the true definition of a warrior. She was a survivor of breast cancer since the late 90's. She endured triple bypass surgery and many years later suffered a massive heart attack. Through all of her health setbacks she never folded and she continued to RISE undefeated.

Saundra was preceded in death by her husband, Kimey Wong; her father, Benjamin Robinson; her mother, Beatrice Canada and bonus mother, Juanita Robinson; her brothers, Russell Suber (aka Butch), Humphrey (aka Sonny); her son in-law, Robert Chapin (aka Bob); her sisters, Cheryl, Marsha, Sheila; and sister in-law, Mary Robinson.

Saundra leaves to cherish her memory her four children, Yasmin Chapin, Kimey Jr., James, and Marquis Wong. In addition to her children, she leaves her grandchildren Tyree, Ja'Quay, James Jr., Kimey III, Jordan, Bra'Lyn, Marquis Jr., Mariana, and an abundance of great grandchildren.

Saundra also leaves behind her siblings, Ricardo Suber (Ruth), Delores Deshields, Margo Robinson, Keith Robinson (Michelle), Christopher Robinson (Helena), Marilyn Robinson, Darnell Robinson (Zephne), Lonell Robinson, her aunts, Henrietta Mapp, Thelma Robinson, Mae Robinson, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins as well as a host of friends.

Love Always & Forever,

The Family
