IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL

Horatio Spafford

Horatio Spafford knew something about life's unexpected challenges. A successful attorney and real estate investor, he lost a fortune in the great Chicago fire of 1871. Around the same time, his son died of scarlet fever, then lost his four precious daughters in a tragic accident at sea.

Horatio immediately set sail for England to join his wife, the family's soul survivor. At one point during his voyage, the ship passed the very spot of the tragic accident. As Horatio thought about his daughters, words of comfort and hope filled his heart and mind. He wrote them down, and they now live on in the hymn "It is Well with My Soul".

*When peace like a river attendeth my way
When sorrows like sea billows roll
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say
It is well, it is well with my soul*

*Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come
Let this blest assurance control
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate
And has shed His own blood for my soul*

...

*My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought;
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more.
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!*

*And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend
Even so, it is well with my soul!*

Perhaps we cannot always say that everything is well in all aspects of our lives. But with faith in a loving God and with trust in His divine help, we can confidently say, "It is well, it is well with my soul."
