Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Order Of SERVICE

Columbus, Ohio – Gwynne Kay Price, 65, passed away peacefully on December 1, 2024, at her home. Born on March 8, 1959, in Orrville, Ohio, she was the beloved daughter of James C. Price and Ethel L. (Perkins) Price.

Gwynne is survived by her children, Veronica LaShaye Price, Trammell LaTroy Price, and Timia Imani Easley of Columbus, Ohio, who will forever hold her memory in their hearts. She was a proud grandmother to Azariah and Koa, who brought her great joy; she would go above and beyond for her grandchildren.

In addition to her children and grandchildren, Gwynne is survived by her mother, Ethel (Perkins) Price, siblings: Vicky R. Steele (Michael) of Coatesville, Pennsylvania, James C. Price, Clay C. Price, both of Wooster, Ohio, and Stacy L. Price of Ypsilanti, Michigan. She was preceded in death by her father, James C. Price, and sister, Enola G. Price.

Gwynne was known for her words of encouragement and motivational talks. Uplifting others with heartfelt scriptures, text, and prayers is something she consistently did. She had a passion for gospel and jazz concerts and also plays. An advocate spectator of figure skating and track & field. Gwyneth loved traveling, especially cruises and shopping trips with family and friends while capturing countless memories.

She delighted in playing cards, doing puzzles with her mother, engaging in word searches, and coloring books. Dancing was one of her greatest joys—When the right song came on, you knew to look for Gwynne on the dance floor, showcasing her signature move, because dancing was one of her greatest joys.

A graduate of Wooster High School, Gwynne worked as an Administrative Professional for the Ohio Highway Patrol for over 15 years, contributing exceptional organizational skills, attention to detail, and unwavering dedication to her team. She served the State of Ohio for 32 years.

Gwynne Kay Price will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Her loving spirit and unwavering support will forever remain in our hearts. She will be missed by her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom cherished her presence in their lives. A special shout-out to her dear cousins and friends who stood by her side through thick and thin; your love and support meant the world to her. Gwynne would say “Keep Living”. May she rest in peace.
