Key Concept for Spiritual Growth

The love of God is the only reason He saved humankind. The love of God is not made up of just emotions and nice words. What makes the biblical revelation of divine love unique and yet universal is that God did not reveal Himself through an emotional and mystical experience or through beautiful and insightful wisdom. God revealed Himself in the reality of history. It is because the good news of God's salvation is for everyone and because salvation is real that the crowning event of salvation can take place only at the end of human history.

Trust God THE UNKNOWN...

Who among you fears the Lord and obeys the word of his servant? Let the one who walks in the dark who has no light, trust in the name of the Lord and rely on their God. Isaiah 50:10 NIV

The quickest path to peace is to learn to trust God. Trusting God is one of the ways that we show honor to Him. It shows respect and declares that we believe His word and trust His character.

The spirit of fear is the root of our insatiable desire to have all the answers to life. We want to know what is coming up next and exactly how things will turn out for us in the future. Although there are many things that God does give us insight into, He does not do so all the time, and when He doesn't we have trust as our "go-to" fail-safe. When we trust God and we are willing to be patient, we will see that He never fails us.

Prayer should precede every important decision that we make.

Come now, and let us reason together, says the Lord. Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool. Isaiah 1:18

Lean on, trust in, and be confident in the Lord with all your heart and mind and do not rely on your own insight or understanding. Proverbs 3:5

God is looking for the kind of trust when we are in the dark, or when life is a mystery and we don't see Him working or feel His presence. These times are actually good for us because they help us grow in faith.
