Life Reflections

Johnny Webb, the son of Jimmie Lee Webb (deceased) and Hattie Elizabeth Webb (deceased) was born in Atlanta, GA. He was the second to the oldest of five children: Helen Grace Holloway, Larry Donell Webb (deceased) Elizabeth Elaine Webb and Walter Lee Webb. He was also preceded in death by his son, Decarti Webb.

“Dogg Man” had a love for all animals, but his fur babies were dogs. He had every dog you could name and brought all of them home to his mom. He would tell everyone that entered his Flora Ave address, “the dogs will not bite, come on in the yard.” Dogg Man also had a love for cars, motorcycles, and music. He enjoyed driving his Nova and 1957 Chevrolet with a hidden passion of building model cars. He rode his motorcycle with his friends that were all a part of the Mellow Fellow Van Club. Dogg Man was man of many talents, and he could cut the rug on the dance floor and carry a tune. “Atomic Dog” by George Clinton, was one of his favorite songs and he felt that the song was made for him. There was not much he could not do even after a few disabilities. Nothing could keep the Dogg Man down.

Johnny leaves to cherish his memories, his kids, Coretta Turner Jones, Johnny (Poochie) Webb, Jr., Tyshinna Necole Mason, and Jah-Vair Tucker; his sisters, Helen Holloway of Atlanta, GA, and Elaine Webb of Savannah, GA; his brother, Walter Lee Webb; his uncle, Gene Roby; his aunt, Mrs. Mary Johnson of Atlanta, GA; ten grandchildren, two great grand kids, and host of nieces, nephews, and relatives.

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Christ which strengthened me.

I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength.

Whatever I have, wherever I am, I can make it through anything in the One who makes me who I am. I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.
