Obituary

Ms. Agnes Young Small was born in Savannah, Georgia on August 16, 1952 to the late Agnes and Mark Young, Sr.

She was educated in the Catholic School System of Savannah and graduated as the Valedictorian of Saint Pius X High School in 1970. She went on to earn her Associates in Accounting and worked as an Accountant to Sterling Hunter Accounting Firm which is now the Ralph Mark Gilbert Civil Rights Museum. She would then go on to work as an Accountant for Jackson Brothers and as an Income Tax Preparer for H&R Block.

She was raised in the Catholic Church and was a member of Saint Mary's Catholic Church. In 1980, she moved her membership in Saint Anthony's Catholic Church which merged with Saint Mary's to become Resurrection of Our Lord Catholic Church. She was a devout member and served as a lector, choir member, and frequently served as a trustee. She was also a member of the Legion of Mary and the Counsel of Catholic Women.

As a proud alumnus of her Alma Mater, she actively participated in activities with the alumni association. Her favorite pastime was gaming, whether it was competing in a Bingo Tournament, Playing Card Games or watching her weeknight games show.

She was married to Thomas Lee Small who preceded her in death in 1991. On Thursday morning, June 18, 2020, God called her home to eternal rest. Now, she is in God's care.

One at Rest

Think of me as one at rest

For me you should not weep...

I have no pain, no troubled thoughts for I am just asleep.

The living thinking me that was

In now forever still...

And life goes on without me

As time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now

Because I've gone away...

Dwell not long upon it, friend

for none of us can stay.

Those of you who like me

I sincerely thank you all...

And those of you who loved me

I thank you most of all.

The answer to life's riddle

In life I never knew...

I go with hope that now I will

And even so will you.

Oh, foolish, foolish me that was

I who was so small...

To have wondered, even worried

At the mystery of it all.

And in my fleeting lifespan

As time went rushing by...

I found some time to hesitate

To love, to cry.

Matters it now if time began

If time will ever cease?...

I was here, I used it all

And now I am at peace.
