Life Reflections

Delores Mercedes Lee was born December 12, 1948 in Tampa FL to the late Olga Cardenas Akins and the late Clinton Lee.

Delores' accomplishments were many. She attended Howard W. Blake High School, Class of 1966.

There she was a stunt majorette and musician. She played piano, clarinet, flute, xylophone and violin as well as sang with the school chorus; all enhanced her skills as an accomplished director to several choirs in the city. She sang with God's power and might.

She worked as an Accountant for General Motors Acceptance Corporation where she retired.

Her hobby and talents were creating masterful ceramic pieces.

Delores was preceded in death by her parents Olga Cardenas Akins, Clinton Lee and William N. Akins Jr.; daughter, Yolanda Frasier; brothers, Donald Thomas, Ronald and Dennis Lee of Chicago; aunt, Delia and uncle Eddie Ingram, uncle Robert Cardenas, Euphamio and Agapita Cardenas; Maternal Grandparents, John and Beatrice Lee, Paternal Grandparents and Special Friend Frank Kelly.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Sisters, Lee Stephens (David), Leafie Legette (Lewis), Yvonne Lee, Cynthia Mctier, Felecia and Loretta (Chicago); Brothers, Irvin, Maurice and Preston, as well as Aunt Oceola (all from Chicago); Grandson, Christopher Murray; God Sister, Marie Tarver White, and a host of sorrowing Great Grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
