Thank you for being here with us today! We pray that you will be drawn by Jesus' love to come again. As we reverently gather before the throne of grace, we seek the Holy Spirit's power to make us like Jesus and to be a blessing to others.

After the church service, please remain reverently in your seats until you are dismissed from the sanctuary, and then exit quietly to the outside.

This week's offering is for the Local Combined Budget. Instead of collecting the offering during the church service, we have provided a box near the sanctuary door where you may leave your offering; or you may give online via our church website, www.fairplainadventist.org.

Nominating Committee—Second Reading: Dan Anderson, Johanna Erickson, Kimberly Jiang, Beckie Osborn, Clara Peredo, Brendon Peterson, Dan Spaulding, Askar Urakpayev, Rob Zdor

Recounting His Blessings

"How thankful we should be that we have a heavenly Intercessor. Jesus presents us to the Father robed in his righteousness. He pleads before God in our behalf. He says, "I have taken the sinner's place. Look not upon this wayward child, but look on me. Look not upon his filthy garments, but look on my righteousness." When we are forgiven for our sins, when our filthy garments are taken away, then we are to work out our salvation with fear and trembling; but we are not left to do the work alone; "for it is God that worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure." God works and man works; and as this co-operation is maintained, the richest blessings will come upon those who labor together with God" Bible Echo, June 1, 1892.
