

In Loving Memory of Marjorie Teresa Dawald

October 15, 1932

May 21, 2019

Mass of Christian Burial
St. John's Catholic Church
Ortonville, Minnesota
Saturday, May 25, 2019, 11:00 AM

Officiant

Reverend Father Brian Oestreich

Organist

Judy Fuller

Soloist/Reader

Marlo Churness

Pallbearers

Kim Churness Sara Krogh
Matthew Krogh Alex Dawald
Jesse Folk Kyle Giese

Honorary Pallbearers

All of Marge's Great-grandchildren

Interment

Mound Cemetery
Ortonville, Minnesota

Celebrating the Life Of Marjorie T. Dawald

October 15, 1932—May 21, 2019

For Those I Love—For Those Who Love Me...

When I am gone, release me, let me go...I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, but let my spirit calm your fears.

I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone! So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories that lie within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone... I'll greet you with a smile and say,

"Welcome Home."

Marjorie was born October 15, 1932 in Grant County to Paul and Clara (Mongold) Rademacher. She attended St. Joseph Catholic school in Rosen, Minnesota and graduated in 1946. She met Gordon at Club 7-75 and was married on July 1st, 1957 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rosen, MN. They were blessed with three children, Terry, Gerry, and Julie. They lived on a farm bordering the Minnesota River which became part of what is now known as the Big Stone Wildlife Refuge. The family moved to Ortonville in 1972 where they raised their children. Marjorie was a homemaker and handywoman. Some of her many talents included being a mother, a farm wife, house cleaner and painter, hanging wallpaper, refinishing furniture, serving on church circles and being the family support giver.

She and Gordon enjoyed their retirement, taking several trips traveling over most of the United States and Canada. She also loved to read, garden, put puzzles together, crafts, and playing cards, with her favorite game being Scrabble. Her biggest joy was her grandchildren and spending time with them as they grew. She and Gordon were blessed to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on July 1st, 2007 with the whole family on the Minnesota Zephyr in Stillwater.

After Marge's husband, Gordon, passed away in 2007, she sold her home in Ortonville and moved to Arabella Manor in Alexandria, which opened up a new and exciting chapter in her life. She made many dear friends in the 8 years she lived there, learned new card games and a domino game called Mexican Train. She then moved to Edgewood Vista where she lived for 3 years under the care of an amazing staff that loved her and treated her like she was family. The family would also like to extend heartfelt thanks to the ER and 2nd floor staff at Alomere Health for the care they have given Marge. We will forever be grateful to each and every one of them.

Finally, a special thank you to Dianna Roers of Hair A'La More Salon for her companionship and support in bringing Marge to her hair appointments. On Tuesday, May 21, at the age of 86, Marge passed away at the Edgewood Vista Assisted Living facility. She was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon; parents, Paul & Clara Rademacher, and brother, Sylvester.

She is survived by children, Terry (Lindy) Dawald, Gerry (Nancy) Dawald, Julie (Marlo) Churness; grandchildren, Cyrese Kragenbring, Jake Erickson, Kelly (Jesse) Folk, Alex (Allison) Dawald, Courtney (Kyle) Giese, Kim Churness, and Sara (Matt) Krogh; and 12 great-grandchildren.

