

Dad

February 29, 2024

I Saw the most beautiful sunrise today and my thoughts were drawn to you, And I pondered how the same daybreak with its vibrant colored hues,

Is seen by you with heavenly eyes in your new home far from me.
And I felt for a moment, "What a lonely place this world is going to be."

You have somehow been my anchor and my wings at the same time.
Your love has kept me grounded and your faith helped me fly.

Your every constant service to both friends and those unknown, Embodies how our Savior's love gently leads us home.

I know you are at peace
and have the rest you've justly earned,
And I know my heart will slowly knit,
though never fully mend,

Until the time I see you with my own celestial view
Our family chain unbroken, our lives begun anew
