OBITUARY

With heavy hearts, we mournfully announce the death of Christopher Charles Pratt, who passed away on February 4, 2022, at the age of 44.

Christopher, born to Cyril Pratt and Patricia L McFadden, took his first breath on November 13, 1977, at Jamaica Hospital in Queens, NY. Christopher was a force to be reckoned with from birth. He spent his early years in Queens, then finished up his primary education attending Granby High School in Norfolk, VA. At the age of 18, he joined the United States Army Reserves and was stationed in South Carolina.

While Pratt never married, he lived a full and vibrant life with more friends, that became family, than you could count. His personality was infectious; he was the epitome of “the life of the party”.

His family meant more to him than anything else in the world, something he often mentioned. He was endlessly proud of his GREATEST creation, his son, Elijah Christopher Pratt, and wanted nothing but the best for him.

Anyone close to Christopher knew he was extremely passionate about music and spent a portion of his career as a musician. The music Capital C’s created with his brother Vaughn made an impressive contribution to the hip hop and rap community. The Prattmeister (which he called himself) could often be found shuffling across a dancefloor doing the signature, “Chris Pratt Shuffle”, or letting you know what constituted good music and what he considered trash (mainly anything from the south).

Christopher Charles Pratt was the most loving father, son, brother, uncle, and friend anyone could ask for and will be truly missed.

He is predeceased by Reverend Cyril Pratt Sr, Jennie Pratt, Katherine McFadden, and David McFadden. He is survived by his son Elijah Pratt, father Cyril Pratt Jr, mother Patricia L. McFadden, two brothers: Vaughn Pratt and Michael Pratt, five sisters: Nicole McFadden, Adrienne Gregory, Trisha Gregory, Tamara Pratt, and Tiffany Pratt, and nieces and nephews, Tyree McFadden, Yasmine Pratt, Janaya Pratt, Ziaire Pratt, Titus Gregory, and Ezekiel Townsend.
