

Life is a Journey

Life is a journey
Each decision a step
The signs are His providence
And the Bible our map

Stop! Look! Where are you headed?
Are you watching for the signs?
Are you studying the map
To ensure you're never lost?

We have a sure Guide
It's the Lord Himself
He has traveled the route before
And He knows just what's in store.

Stop! Look! Where are you headed?
Who is guiding you?
Do you hear His still small voice,
And then follow the right choice?

Each day draws us nearer
To the close of our journey
Each step taken will count
In deciding our destiny.

Stop! Look! Where are you headed?
Where do you want to be?
It is simply up to you
Where you'll spend eternity!

Stop! Look! Where are you headed?
Where do you want to be?
It is simply up to you
Where you'll spend eternity!

Stop! Look! Where are you headed?
Where do you want to be?
