Sharod Victor Lamont Kindell was born on March 10, 1991, to the proud parents of Sherri Landrum and Arvell Kindell. During his mother's delivery she can tell you out of 9 children, he was the longest labor with 18 hours, because of his big head lol. The Doctor kept telling her, "Stop watching the Lakers vs Boston Game so this baby can come out." She believes to this day along with his genes and that basketball game, it is the reason he was the phenomenal athlete he came to be.

Growing up Sharod was a thinker; he was persistent and didn't have the words "give up" in his vocabulary. At the age of 15 months Sharod could do 100 push-ups easy. His dad would make a bet and lose the bet because Sharod really did do 100 push-ups. He taught himself how to ride a ten-Speed bike at the age of 5 years old, on one of our many family camping trips at the Cherry Creek Reservoir. His grandmother was in the camper and kept an eye on him as she prepared for dinner. Once he finally got it, she stood in the camper door clapping and yelling "Go Roddy Go". Any ball he touched or sport played the talent seemed to come naturally.

Sharod started his football career with the PAL football league. He started out with Prince Hall until his Uncle Lawrence saw what a phenomenal athlete he was and recruited him over to the Park Hill Falcons, where he played almost every position. His little brother Donald thought he was so good; he wrote a story about it in one of his classes. Sharod also started playing basketball for the Glenarm Rec Center where he developed friendships with his teammates Chris Strudwick, Michael Criag, Tre and Chris Johnson, Michael Whatley, Chris Hayes, and Tabias Graves, remember Sharod as a competitive style player, and how he did not like to lose. Sharod also attended after-school programs, at two of the local Church's, where he was tutored by an amazing couple Nancy and Larry Hayes. They loved Sharod so much that they would even take all of his siblings on trips to the mountains, skiing, cave of the winds, etc. with them. They gave him and his siblings a sense of what life could be like if they just stayed focused.

When Sharod lost his older brother things in his life began to unwind, so much that his mom reached out to Bruce Duell at Save Our Youth, and he was paired with an amazing mentor Scott Tschappt. Scott and Sharod's bond became so close over the years that Roddy treated him more like family than a mentor. Sharod attended Whittier Elementary, Morey Middle School, and East high School where he played basketball under Coach Harding and football under Coach Wolff.

Sharod Became very close to the Hardings, and sometimes I couldn't get him to come home. Sharod was very popular at East. His sister Reola recalls how him and his cousin Blake would just slide into her class room acting like they were the five heartbeats singing and acting out, A heart is a house for love. Roddy thought he was Eddie Kane himself LOL.

Sharod had a lot of close friends that became brothers, and sisters, one was his bond with Matthew Tapper, Sharod loved the bond he had with Tapper. He knew he could call on him and vice versa no matter the situation good or bad, Tapper was always there. Their favorite outing was sitting front row at the Nuggets game. Unfortunately, because Sharod was such a good friend he wouldn't snitch on his friends, and was expelled from East, he was devastated, all of his teammates were devastated as well, but just for a moment.

Sharod's mother recalls him being so devastated that she had to send him to Oregon with his Uncle for a year. When he came back to Colorado for his Junior and Senior year, Coach Martin from North High school came along and knew how great of an athlete Sharod was. He did everything in his power to give this great athletic young man another chance, and that led to Sharod getting to play and leading the North High School Vikings to the playoffs, for the first time in 25 years during his senior year. Sharod came back determined to be successful, so much he got a job at Elitch's and bought his first dream car a SS Monte Carlo. He worked so hard to get that thing in tip top shape and was so proud when it was up and running.

After Sharod graduated from High School, he began to start his music career along with his cousin, Rodwyn and his friends, Marquis, Tony, and later his cousin Markie. They were always in his room on Fillmore Street sometimes they would only come out to eat and get right back at it. Sharod's sister, Sherricka was his closest bond. She would always braid his hair and she recalls he always wanted her catfish, nana's cheesecake, and mom's banana pudding. Sharod loved the Samoa girl scout cookies, he would always call his mom and ask, "Mom ain't it girl scout season, can you grab me six boxes of them Samoa's?" Of course, it was always after he had just came from the store. LOL!

In 2009, Sharod met the love of his life Chanel Cruz. To this union they had three beautiful daughters, A'milian, Astele, and Ava. Sharod began to grind even harder because he wanted the best for his girls and Chanel. Sharod was a proud father that took pride in his girls. They remember their dad always taking them shopping, going to the Gaylord resorts on the weekend to go swimming and always playing jokes and pranking each other. Chanel remembers how much fun they would have together taking the kids to Disneyland vacations, and dinner and he would always bring home pints of A LOT of ice cream. He would always make sure their birthdays and holidays were memorable. Everything he did was for his kids and family. He rarely missed his girls' basketball games. His daughters will miss him dearly, and so will his paw kid yorkies, Bleau, Booskie and Bentley.

In 2014, he opened Gallery 23 a store front on Larimer St. where his cousin Devaughn, his "Big Bro" Clifton, his brother Donald, sister Jazzelle, and Chanel, helped run the store. Unfortunately, in January 2015 Sharod was shot by a cop, for a wrongful traffic stop. Sharod unfortunately had to spend 3 years in prison in which he was not ashamed of because he was wrongfully charged. He spoke about it often, but he refused to let that keep him down. After being released and he returned home, he was Baptized by Pastor Paul Burluson.

Sharod had a straight-ahead vision, he began to work even harder and ended up leasing a shop on Blake Street just down the block from Coors Field, where he worked night and day to open COFFEE HIGH CO. He opened his doors during the pandemic. He was such a visionist he then expanded to open a food truck that became just as popular as Coffee

High. People would rant and rave about his Turkey club sandwich, salads, and chicken wraps, but would boast about how good the coffee was.

Sharod will be greatly missed by everyone whose life he touched (per mom way too many to name). His cousin PT remembers how much of a mentor he was in his life. He had a heart of Gold; he was always concerned about the youth and the homeless. He would always hire his Nieces and nephews because he believed they needed to learn and work hard. He would give the shirt and shoes off his back to help the homeless, he would even give them food at the end of day when the shop closed for business. Sharod put a backpack drive together for the children in the community because he believed no child should go without. His sister's and cousin's Bivanca and Dyrell all remember his sense of humor and him always finding a way to pick on them and make them laugh, his crazy way of roasting you was EPIC, and the love he had for everybody. He would always tell his mom, "Mom don't trip, just be patient cause your house is coming soon." Him and his little brother Donald talked often, laughed hard a consulted each other on business. Donald loved his brother's ambition and was his biggest fan.

On January 24, 2024, Sharod's life on this side came to an end, in a tragic car accident. His quote was always "Just a man who the odds was against, that turned his life around and seen a bigger picture." My Sonshine, although short lived, you truly painted a bigger picture for the world to see, Your Madre' along with everyone else is very proud of you and we will miss you tremendously and love you eternally. Now you can finally L.I.P (Live In Peace) Roddy.

Sharod is preceded in death by his Big Brother Kurt Lydell Levias, Jr. "LK", His grandparents, James and Eldora Sherman, Robert and Reola Kindell, and Johnny Landrum.

We love you higher than the sky and deeper than the ocean.
We promise to keep your memory in motion..
We think of you everyday and talk about you still.
Your legacy will live on through us Daddy,
we promise it will.
Everything you taught us
and everything you've done..
We promise to remember,
you'll always be our #1.
Everytime we think of you,
mommy said to say a prayer.
We will do that for the rest of our lives
until we get to see you later..
Your wings were ready daddy
but our hearts were not.
We'll love and miss our girl dad more than a lot!

Love Mili, Stele, and Ava
We will never ever forget you!!

MY SONSHINE, MY RODDY, MY BABY

My heart is torn, that you have to leave us.

Mommie is so very proud of your Accomplishments on this side.

the devil tried to stop you so many times,
but You fought back with the strength of God,
to show him no matter what he could not Nor would not defeat you.

So many people doubted you,
but you showed them
despite all their efforts to destroy you, it only gave you that much more drive.

I will miss you my son, your laugh,
your beautiful smile, your picking on your momma,
Your drive to be the best you could be,
your help, your calling me in the middle of the day to run to the store for the shop.
Your not trusting anyone with your kids,
except you Madre'

the drive you had to be the best
Father and role model for them.
But most of all I will MISS MY SONSHINE.

L.I.P (Live In Peace) son.

I am Blessed to be your Mother,
and so Glad God Choose me for you.

LOVE YOUR MADRE'

A TRUE CHAMPION'S DREAM NEVER DIES!

Letters to Our Brother In Heaven

They say there is a reason
They say time will heal;
Neither time or reason
Will change the way we feel.

Gone are the days
We used to share,
But in our hearts
You are always there.
The gates of memories
Will never close;
We miss you more than Anybody knows...
Love and miss you everyday
Till we meet again
Always & Forever

MY NINE HEARTBEATS
WILL ALWAYS BE MINE.

A Million Times

You never said I'm leaving,
you never said goodbye,
you were gone before we knew it
and only God knew why.
A million times we needed you,
a million times we cried,
if Love alone could save you,
you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we love you still,
in our hearts you hold a place,
that no one could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone,
for part of us went with YOU,
the day God took you home.
