Celebrating the Life of

Dorothy Jean Young

October 14, 1951 - November 28, 2020

Precious Memories
Dorothy Jean Young

As beautiful as a rose to see, was her life she lived so gracefully. She made things precious by her touch; her selfless love lives on in each of us. The petals of her life fell one by one; each a gift of her heart till there were none. Yet her radiance blooms once again in fields of glory with no end.

Dorothy Jean Young was born on October 14, 1951, in Center, Texas to her parents, James J. Daniels and Dorothy L. Russell Daniels. She was the second child born in the family. She was raised surrounded by her brothers, Oscar, James, Willie Gene, Willie Glenn, and her sisters, Mary, Celia, Vera, Helen, Sharon, Cheryl, and Cynthia. As a child, she enjoyed dancing, skating, listening to music, and visiting the Dallas State Fair. She was loving and caring when it came to her younger siblings.

Dorothy received her formal education in Dallas, Texas where, she graduated from Booker T. Washington High School.

Dorothy united in holy matrimony to Tommy Lee Young, Sr. They first met while attending a social gathering. Tommy fondly remembers how strikingly beautiful she was and commenting, "I am going to marry you." She was the proud mother of Anthony, Tommy Jr., Derik, Kenny, Rodney, Darren, David, Michael, and daughters, Carla, Shirley, Tammy, Angela, Beverly, Diana, Jennifer, and Keyonna. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother who took great pride in the care and nurture of her family. They shared many happy and precious moments together. She was later blessed with forty-four grandchildren, thirty-one great grandchildren, who all were an additional source of joy and pride in her life. They too have many happy and memorable moments together.

Dorothy was a Homemaker. She was an excellent cook and prepared some of the best home cooked meals you ever had. She often shared with her children about her experiences in youth and always gave them sound advice.

Dorothy will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful woman.

To know Dorothy was to love her.

She is preceded in death by a son, David Daniels, her parents, Frank and Dorothy Daniels; siblings, Oscar James and James Ray Daniels; a granddaughter, Alayashia Mot'e Young; a grandson, James Adam Chaney Daniels; a great grandson, Wysdom Kadier Ermias Buskey.

Dorothy Jean Young departed this life on November 28, 2020, in Denver, Colorado. Those left to cherish her memory and mourn her loss include her husband, Tommy L. Young, Sr.; sons, Anthony D. Daniels (Denita Vigil), Tommy L. Young, Jr., Derik D. (Marissa) Young, Kenny L. Young, Rodney D (Chaka) Young, Darren M. Young, Michael S. Young; daughters, Carla D. (Christopher) Magallnes, Shirley R (Barry) Staten, Tammy L. (Ron) Daniels, Angela M. Young, Beverly J. Young, Diana M. (Jimmie) Young Green, Jennifer L. (Delvon) McCorkle, and Keyonna D. Zepeda; brothers, Willie Gene. Daniels, Willie Glenn Daniels; sisters, Mary Berry, Celia A. Daniels, Vera Wade, Helen Williams, Diane Daniels, Cheryl (Joe) Burton, and Cynthia (Darryl) Jones; 44 grandchildren; 31 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love

But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart
