

His Life

Melvin Maddux, born on June 28, 1967, in Temple, Texas, passed away unexpectedly on October 24, 2024, in Salado, Texas. He was a beloved husband, father, brother, and friend whose vibrant spirit and unwavering commitment to his family left behind an indelible mark on all who were fortunate to know him.

Melvin dedicated his career to specializing in product procurement, traveling the world to find the finest gourmet food products to bring to the United States. His passion for his work mirrored the passion he had for his loved ones. Wherever Melvin was, he made it a priority to be involved wholeheartedly in the lives of his family, placing them above all else. His optimistic and outgoing nature allowed him to meet people easily, creating friendships wherever he went.

His interests were a reflection of his warmth and love for family; he cherished time spent with his wife, Janet Maddux, and their daughters, Madisyn and Presley Maddux. Whether it was cooking for his family, cheering on his favorite college and high school football teams, or enjoying moments of solitude while fishing, Melvin embraced each activity with thoughtfulness and enthusiasm. He not only dedicated himself to creating unforgettable memories but also to establishing a strong foundation for his family, something he incredibly valued.

Melvin's family is left with cherished memories and a profound sense of pride in his accomplishments, especially in the joy he found in his daughters. They are a testament to the loving father he was, as he consistently supported and encouraged them in all their endeavors. He is survived by his loving wife, Janet Maddux, of Salado; his daughters, Madisyn and Presley Maddux; his brother, Thomas Maddux, of Temple; brother-in-law, Mark Moore, of Cedar Park; sisters, Kalyn Maddux of Rogers, and Ellen Maddux of Temple; his mother-in-law, Shirley Moore of Temple; as well as nieces, nephews, and numerous cherished family and friends. Melvin is preceded in death by his parents, Gene and Genda Maddux, and his brother, Wilbur Maddux.

This service will honor a man whose love knew no bounds and whose spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those he touched. Melvin Maddux will always be remembered for his boundless generosity, vivacity, and above all, the deep love he held for his family.

MELVIN DOUGLAS MADDUX

JUNE 28, 1967 ~ OCTOBER 24, 2024

LET NOT YOUR HEART BE TROUBLED:
YOU BELIEVE IN GOD,
BELIEVE ALSO IN ME.
IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE
ARE MANY MANSIONS:
IF IT WERE NOT SO,
I WOULD HAVE TOLD YOU.
I GO TO PREPARE A PLACE FOR YOU.
AND IF I GO AND PREPARE
A PLACE FOR YOU,
I WILL COME AGAIN,
AND RECEIVE YOU TO MYSELF;
THAT WHERE I AM,
THERE YOU MAY BE ALSO.
