New Seventh-Day Adventist Family Educational Scholarship

We heartily welcome those who have recently become a part of the Seventh-day Adventist family of believers through baptism or their profession of faith. We realize that this step of faith may involve significant change in lifestyle and family finances with the concept of tithing and systematic benevolence.

Since Adventist education is considered an essential for character development in our youth and in preparing them for future leadership in the church, the following scholarship plan has been established to encourage new members to enroll their children in Seventh-day Adventist elementary schools.

1. A sharing of tuition costs for the first year after baptism/profession of faith with the church responsible for 35%, the Conference 35%, and the family 30%.
2. Registration fees and book costs are the responsibility of the family.
3. The request for scholarship is to be voted for approval by the School Board and forwarded to the Conference.
4. Students are eligible for this New Member Scholarship when they enroll in school within 12 months after family members become Seventh-day Adventists through baptism or profession of faith.
