

Twenty Third Psalm

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

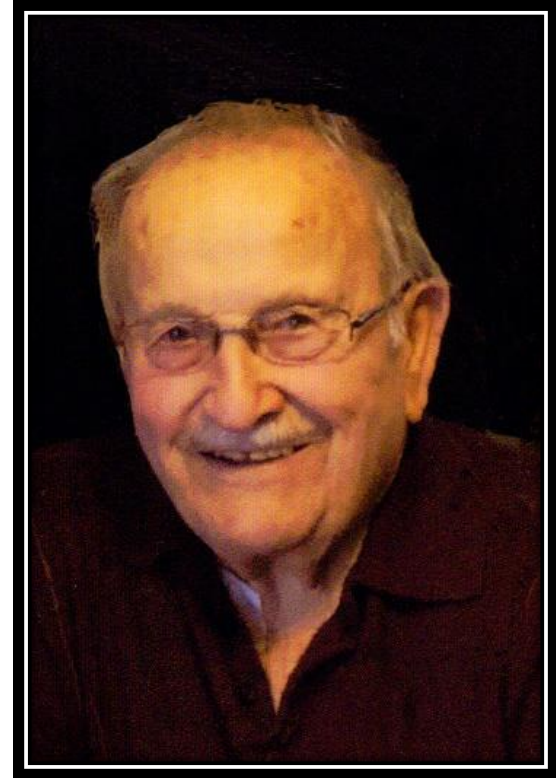

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Filmore Mutschelknaus was born December 14, 1929 to Adolph and Lea (Weidenbach) Mutschelknaus on the family farm in Yankton County. He attended the Odessa #24 Country School. On July 23, 1950 Filmore married Darlene Schenkel at Martinus Lutheran Church, Utica, South Dakota.

Filmore was a proud farmer. He loved his cattle and his horses. He had names for all of them. For over 25 years he was a seed corn dealer. In 2001, Filmore retired and moved to Lesterville.

Filmore enjoyed baseball and was a huge St. Louis Cardinals fan. He really enjoyed being the “Voice of the Lesterville Broncs” baseball team for over 40 years. He loved the Lord, church was very important to him and he loved his family. He was the Martinus Lutheran Church treasurer for over 40 years. After retirement, Filmore enjoyed recycling metal, gardening, and fishing. He was a great dancer and he loved his wife’s cooking. He also loved visiting with family and friends and going to ball games.

Filmore Mutschelknaus, age 90, of Lesterville, passed away Thursday, August 13, 2020, at his home with his wife and his family surrounding him.

Grateful for having shared in his life are his wife of 70 years, Darlene Mutschelknaus of Lesterville; six children, Barbara Cisar, Thomas (Brenda) Mutschelknaus, Joseph (Mollie) Mutschelknaus, Peggy (Richard) Walloch, Benjamin Mutschelknaus and Paul (Donna) Mutschelknaus; 17 grandchildren; 53 great-grandchildren; and 5 great-great-grandchildren.

Filmore was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Elmer; parents-in-law, Wm and Sarah Schenkel; 1 brother-in-law; 2 sisters-in-law; son-in-law, Don Cisar; daughter-in-law, Margaret Mutschelknaus; Ben’s fiancé, Raquel Wade; and great-grandson, Shawn Cook.

To God be the glory
