PA Conference Training Event

Join the Pennsylvania Conference for an exciting one-day Zoom training event with speakers including Mark Finley and more looking at “How to Work Your Interest Database and Impact Lives” on Sunday, January 10, 2021, 1:00-6:00 pm. During this timely seminar you will learn how to develop a church interest database and then build relationships with individual people on your list. The principles learned can also be applied to reaching your family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers on your personal contact list.

The Zoom training is free to all church ministry leaders, lay-virtual Bible workers and lay members interested in learning new and creative ways to reach people in their sphere of influence with the everlasting gospel! Reserve your spot for this powerful seminar by registering at www.paconference.org/faithinaction.

For the New Year

As the year comes to a close, many of you may be considering setting goals or even New Year's resolutions for the coming year. How about reading the Bible through in a year? Join the Pennsylvania Conference in not only reading the Bible daily from cover-to-cover, but doing it chronologically.

Check out our reading plan at <https://paconference.org/biblestudy/>. You'll also find a plan for reading the Conflict of the Ages series through in a year with weekly readings. Downloadable the PDF or bookmark the page.
