

Ronald Oran McAdams
"Ronnie"

February 10, 1948 – July 20, 2024

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in
green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the
still waters

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for though art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine
enemies;

Thou anointest my heart with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Ronald Oran McAdams, known affectionately as “Ronnie,” passed away on July 20, 2024, in Smithville, Texas, at the age of 76. Born on February 10, 1948, in Austin, Texas, he was a cherished member of his community and a beloved figure in his family.

The family was the cornerstone of Ronnie's life. He is survived by his mother, Ilene McAdams; daughter, Shawn McAdams; granddaughter, Brandi Gilbert and her husband Michael; great-grandson, Orin Gilbert; grandson, Harrison Dennis; son, David McAdams; daughter-in-law, Jolie McAdams; grandson, Jayce McAdams; former wife and mother of his children, Deborah Taylor; sisters, Shirley (McAdams) Cearley, Patricia (McAdams) Holland, Kathy (McAdams) Stenson and her husband Larry, and Jo (McAdams) Shell; along with many beloved nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews. Ronnie was preceded in death by his loving wife, Janet (Ozell) McAdams; father, Oran Lee McAdams; grandson, David Hayden McAdams; and sister, Nancy Marie McAdams.

Professionally, Ronnie dedicated years to the McAdams Roofing Company alongside his father before venturing into his own business, McAdams Construction. Known for his work ethic, Ronnie was equally recognized for his ability to tackle challenges and bring creative solutions to projects. Whether he was repairing vehicles or overseeing construction projects, Ronnie was a testament to the power of hard work and dedication.

Ronnie was a regular attendee of Cedar Valley Baptist Church, where he worshipped alongside his mother, Ilene McAdams. His faith and the community he found at church were an integral part of his life.

Ronnie's warmth, wisdom, and kindness will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His legacy will live on in the memories he leaves behind and the profound impact he had on his family and friends.
