The Pastor's Blog

“She had taught scripture in the local high school for years with little observable fruit. She had been faithful in the task but had not witnessed students coming to Christ for almost a decade. That year, everything changed. A citywide movement of prayer commenced. Her particular group prayed specifically for Sydney’s North shore. They pleaded with the ‘Lord of the Harvest’ to open the hearts of many who had not known him before. In particular, they prayed for the school ministries in which several of them were involved. Within the year, Glenda’s ministry was booming as she hosted regular evangelistic events in her home. As many as twenty students from the local high school eagerly crammed into her lounge room to ask their questions and to hear guest speakers she invited along. At least six of the students from her class of 1982 turned to Christ for the first time. Three of them are now passing on the gospel to others full-time (including the author of this book).

*A few years after these strange days, I asked Glenda what she put her “success” down to. Without blinking she answered, “Prayer.” “We prayed earnestly, regularly and specifically for your school and the Lord in His grace answered us.” As an evangelist who is sometimes tempted to think too highly of skill, style and creativity in evangelism, her words were (are) a salient reminder that the “harvest” is the Lord’s, not mine.” The most basic gospel promoting task therefore, is not evangelism, it is the prayer to the Lord of the Harvest.” John Dickson, The Best Kept Secret of Christian Mission: Promoting the Gospel with More Than Our Lips (Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2010), 61*

A “praying together church” is a succeeding church. This is how I would summarize this true life story from John Dickson (PhD), Director of the Center of Public Christianity, Sydney, Australia.

I would like to encourage each member to vigorously engage in their prayer life and together as a church, let us do the same. If we are praying individually but feel the need for God to do more, (emphasis on more because God is always at work) then what can we do differently? If time and space would permit, I would like to share more of what Dickson learned in his real life experiences. It was not just praying more and more often, it was praying together. Can we pray more together? For the unleashing of a massive outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, everyone prayed together and in one accord with much fruit.

Happy Sabbath and God bless you! I encourage you to join us on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. for our weekly prayer meeting.

~ Pastor Robert Greaves ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
