Key Concepts for Spiritual Growth

The martyrs' cry for judgement in the fifth seal is answered by the seven trumpets. The message of the trumpets is that God sees the suffering of His people and responds to the injustice, not only at the end of time—but throughout the course of history. Like Job, we may not always understand what God is doing, but we have reason to trust Him even in the darkest times.

How to Hear the Voice of God

Discerning the will of God is about knowing His heart, and that happens only when you get close enough to hear Him whisper. 5 Tests to discern the will of God, the voice of God.

The will of God should make your heart skip a beat. You certainly have to pass that feeling through the filter of Scripture, but the quickening of the Holy Spirit often causes goose bumps.

The second test is the Peace Test. Paul said “Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts.” Does that mean you won't feel scared or stressed? No. It simply means that you know in your heart of hearts that it is the right thing to do. It's a peace that literally passes understanding.

The third test is the Wise Counsel. Surround yourself with people who bring out the best in you. Surround yourself with people who have permission to speak the truth in love. Simply put, seek wise counsel. This will save you some trials and get you out of others. And because of our infinite ability to deceive ourselves, it's an important check and balance.

The fourth test is the Crazy Test. By definition, A God-sized dream is always beyond our abilities beyond our logic, and beyond our resources. In other words, we can't do it without God's help.

The fifth test is *the Released-from and Called-to By being “released from” a current responsibility and God's timing to move to the called-to new one.
