

Spring Garden
So when I looked at those flowers,
I was looking at God.
For they blossomed in His sun,
and grew in His sod.
And each lovely flower
was a “voice from above,” that whispered a message of kindness and love.
For I feel in my heart,
and I know you do, too,
That God speaks to us all through the kind things we do.
And when I looked at those flowers,
I couldn't help but feel,
that they brought heaven nearer and made God so real.

Kathryn Geiger, 99, Mandan, died August 21, 2018, at Augusta Place, Bismarck.

Kathryn was born September 13, 1918, in Solen, ND to George and Katherine (Leingang) Schmidt. She attended school in Solen through the eighth grade. Kathryn developed a strong work ethic from a young age. She worked on the family farm picking rocks, milking cows, as well as many other chores. On June 17, 1939, she married George Geiger in Mandan where they made their home and raised their family. Kathryn loved to sew, do embroidery, and she was a wonderful cook. She enjoyed going to dances with George at the Eagles Club, doing puzzles, word searches, playing cards, and watching Jeopardy. A beloved mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, Kathryn will be missed by those who knew and loved her.

Blessed to share her life are three children, Lyla (Dave) Hochanadel, Overland Park, KS, Renee (Brian) Krause, Belle Fouche, SD, and Ron (Eileen) Geiger, Richland, WA; 13 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; and one sister, Peggy Sturn, New Braunfels, TX.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her husband, George, in 1991; son, Gerald; grandson, Brian Hochanadel; great-grandsons, Declan Padden and Eric Jr. Lucht; six brothers; and five sisters.
