

In Loving Memory

Life should NOT be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive and well-preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, chocolate in one hand, a Coke in the other, body thoroughly used up, totally worn out and screaming, "Holy S what a ride!"

After spending a lifetime and literally thousands of hours on old hard bleacher seats while watching over and enthusiastically cheering for her kids, grandkids, great-grandkids and other family members, Ruby Reiner has now upgraded to a luxury box seat in heaven. She will also undoubtedly, laughingly reacquaint with old friends and family and make many new friends, at that luxury venue in the sky, just as she did at every gymnasium or grandstand she ever walked into during her lifetime on earth. Apparently, heaven needed another seasoned but still sensational cheerleader, as Ruby passed away, accepted her upgrade to heaven on May 6, 2024 at the age of 87.

Ruby was born on March 18, 1937 at Pine Ridge, SD. Her parents were Ramona (Rank) and Harold Gunnare, step-dad. After graduating from Delmont High School, she married Delmar Reiner on June 19, 1955.

Ruby is survived by her three children, Greg (and Diana) Reiner of Mitchell, Kevin (and Jill Hagen) Reiner of Crooks and Jackie (and Wayne) Bietz of Burlington, IA. Ruby is also survived by eight grandsons and their wives, Justin (and Leslie) Reiner of Harrisburg, Tyson (and Randi) Reiner of Golden, CO, Jordan (and Katie) Reiner of Clive, IA, Neil (and Julia) Reiner of White Bear Lake, MN, Forrest (and Abbie) Reiner of Yankton, Zac (and Randi) Bietz of Normal, IL, Seth (and Mollie) Bietz of Mediapolis, IA and Weston (and Erin) Bietz of Mediapolis, IA. Ruby was also blessed with ten great-grandchildren, Alexis, Stella, Rylie, Colt, Corbin, Remi, Baker, Alexandra, Nash and Crue; sister, Rena Mae Dambly of Pismo Beach, CA as well as many beloved family members, good friends and favorite acquaintances too numerous to list, but you know who you are.

Ruby was preceded in death by her husband, Delmar Reiner; her parents, Harold and Ramona Gunnare and too many beloved family members, friends and favorite acquaintances to list.
