

Jay and Tiphaine Rosario

After his baptism in 1999, Jay Rosario sensed a call to dedicate his life to spreading the Adventist message. In the year 2000 he started working as a literature evangelist while at school in central Florida and continued canvassing in the summer in south Florida. After graduating from the Mission College of Evangelism in 2001 he served as a Bible worker in New York City and then all over the country. In 2008 he was called to serve as a Pastor in the Bay area for the Central California Conference. After six years of ministry there the Lord providentially opened the door for him to join the Gulf States Conference.

Jay's ministry would be incomplete without his wife Tiphaine who has travelled alongside him all over the world to places such as China, Dubai, Canada, Europe and Australia as guest speakers. They met in Spain at a youth conference in 2010, where Jay was a speaker, and a friendship blossomed between them. Tiphaine, originally from Western Europe, finished her undergraduate studies in Applied Languages from Liverpool John Moores University in 2010. She also holds an M.A. in Translating and Interpreting from the University of Westminster in central London. They celebrated their marriage in 2013 and last year received their greatest blessing to date, when they welcomed their baby daughter Sofia into the world.

After serving in ministry for several years he finished his B.A. in Theology from Cary Bible College in California. He is currently completing an M.A. in Pastoral Ministry from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University.
