Family & Friends are invited to join the family for a luncheon and fellowship, following the funeral service, at the Concordia American Legion

*God took the strength of a mountain, the majesty of a tree, the warmth of a summer’s sun, the calm of a quiet sea, the generous soul of nature, the comforting arms of night, the wisdom of the ages, the power of an eagle’s flight, the joy of a morning in spring, the faith of the mustard seed, the patients of eternity, the depth of a family’s need.
Then god combined these qualities, and when there was nothing more to add, he knew his masterpiece was complete, and so he called it “Dad.”*

Cass Lee Reynolds, 50, of Belleville, KS passed away at home surrounded by loved ones on December 16, 2021 after a 34-month long battle with colon cancer. Cass was a husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend; but most importantly he was a hero in the way he lived life and fought for it up until the end. Cass was born on October 22, 1971 to Nick and Pam Reynolds, in Belleville, KS. After graduating from Hillcrest High School in 1990, he went on to receive a Bachelor of Agriculture Economics from Kansas State University. Cass worked in purchasing and sales at ABB/Alstom Power Air Preheater before becoming an owner/operator of Concordia Technologies in 2017. In May of 1998, Cass married his wife Misty and they had two children Cormik and Camryn. Cass was a force of nature, determined to provide for his family and give them the best life possible. His family meant more to him than anything, something he often mentioned. Cass spent his earlier years pursuing his hobby of team roping. Alongside many family members, Cass won saddles, buckles, even a trailer. After marriage and children, his hobby focus turned more towards hunting and fishing. Cass ran a successful hunting operation with his brother and friend. It was through these hobbies that Cass met many of his closest friends. Cass was predeceased by his grandparents Vernon and Barbara Reynolds, and Robert Craig; his aunt Susanne Reynolds; and uncles Bob Pugh and John Reynolds. He is survived by his wife Misty (Belleville, KS); his two children Cormik and Camryn; his parents Nick and Pam (Cuba, KS); his brother Jay T and wife Kim (Scandia, KS); their children Peyton, Kendall, Breckyn; his grandparents Thomas and JoAnn Walker (Talmo, KS); his in-laws Gary and Mary K Funke (Washington, KS); sister-in-law Staci Schmidt and husband Jamie (Queens Creek, AZ); their children Hanna, Makayla, and Shayne; brother-in-law Michael Deger and wife Kitra (Lincoln, NE); their children Merrick, Kreyton, and Korenn; and numerous other aunts, uncles, and cousins. Memorials are requested to the Cass L. Reynolds Memorial, to be designated at a later date, and may be sent in care of the funeral home.
