

LARRY DONALD MCKENNEY

Larry Donald McKenney, 78, of Bowling Green died at 2:24 p.m., Monday, January 31, 2011 at his residence.

Larry was born on January 21, 1933 in Provo, Kentucky. He spent his early years helping his father on the family farm in Butler County. As a teenager his family moved to Bowling Green and continued farming on acreage the family acquired on Cemetery Road. Larry attended College High in Bowling Green through the 10th grade. In his early 20's he bought and sold cattle with his father Eldon. Larry moved to Louisville and bought a tavern on Cane Run Road on the Ohio River. After several years he moved back to Bowling Green and was a rental property manager and owner until his death. He was a member of the Moose Lodge and was the life of the party and had a special knack for making people laugh because he had a great sense of humor. Larry would give his shirt off his back to help anyone who needed it. He was beloved by his family and friends and will be forever remembered. He was the son of the late Eldon Dial McKenney and Donnie Ruth Rhone McKenney and the husband of the late Ora Dane Petett McKenney.

Graveside service will be at 1:00 p.m., Friday, at Fairview Cemetery #2 where he will be buried. No visitation is scheduled.

Survivors include a sister, Ruth Humphries of Apopka, FL; a brother-in-law, Parker Miller of Bowling Green; nieces, Donna Miller Lloyd and her husband, John & Diane Miller Estes and her husband, Jack, all of Bowling Green; nephews, William Humphries of Apopka, FL, Eric Humphries of Atlanta, GA, and Eldon Humphries and his wife, Darla of Denver, CO; and several cousins, great nieces and great nephews.
