

*When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared—
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds—
Miss me, but let me go.*

Harold was born on October 21, 1941, in Dakota City, Iowa, the son of Wilbur & Anna Pearl (Reece) Brock. He grew up in Eldora and became a lifelong resident. After high school, Harold began his 50 -year career at Whinks in Eldora, where he retired from. Shortly after starting at Whinks, Harold was drafted into the United States Army serving from August 9, 1968 until August 9, 1970, as an SRE5 in Communications.

He enjoyed going to garage sales, gardening, tinkering in different kinds of construction projects and collecting tins and other objects. Harold really enjoyed spending time with his close friends, especially dining out. Every weekend, Harold and whom he considered a son, Jeremy, would grill steaks together. They didn't just enjoy one steak a piece, but two!

Harold was a father figure to some, and his passing leaves a void they cannot fill, but they will never forget the good times, laughter and loved they shared.

Harold is survived by his brother-in-law Ken Collins of Eldora and sister-in-law Patricia Brock of Des Moines; many nieces and nephews; very close friends Dwight and Rose Doud of Jonesboro, Arkansas and Janette Eilderts and her fiancé Mike Good of Parkersburg; special son Jeremy (Katie) Buss and their children Adrian and Kara of Kewanee, IL; friend Cole Allison. He rejoins in heaven his parents; sisters Francis, Mary & Viola and brother Ken.
