

In Memory Of

Remember me when flowers bloom
Early in the spring
Remember me on sunny days
In the fun that summer brings
Remember me in the fall
As you walk through the leaves of gold
And in the wintertime – remember me
In the stories that are told
But most of all remember
Each day – right from the start
I will be forever near
For I live within your heart

He is survived by his brothers Delbert Ostrom (Charlotte), Plainville, Kansas and Larry Ostrom (Phyllis), Concordia, Kansas. Wes attended Concordia schools. He was working as a firefighter in Salina, Kansas when he was married to Carolyn Pugh in February 1965. They had two children who survive: John Ostrom (Kelley), Burwell, Nebraska and Julie Ostrom-Asch, Clyde, Kansas. If they could talk, what stories they could tell to all. Ridin good horses or bad ones, they were all the same. Being a cowboy was the name of the game. When I pass recall the joy, here lies Grandpa, a real cowboy."
