

Scott Leon Schmidtbauer was born on December 12, 1969, to Leon and Patricia (Jankowsky) Schmidtbauer in St. Cloud, MN. As a child growing up in Apple Valley, he could be found in one of two places: playing sports with many of his friends from the neighborhood or spending countless summers with his grandparents fishing on the Second Crow Wing Lake. In 1985, the family moved to Staples and sports took a backseat to his love of music and spending time with friends. He graduated from Staples High School in 1988.

After high school, Scott went to work for McKechnie tooling as a CNC operator. He met Dawn Gorder and they had a son, Tyler. He lived in Staples for several years before moving to Miliona where he continued his work as a CNC operator at Pro Fab for several more years. Scott loved hunting and fishing with Tyler and being a dad, uncle, and grandpa. He also had a fondness for his dog, Bob. Needing a change, Scott recently moved to Alberta to be closer to family.

On October 20th, 2022, Scott Schmidtbauer passed away from natural causes at the age of 52. He is survived by his father, Leon (Gayla) Schmidtbauer; grandchild, Cydney; sister, Lorie (Ardyn) Hansen; brother, Mark (Jacqui) Schmidtbauer; and nieces and nephew. He was preceded in death by his mother, Patricia Schmidtbauer; son, Tyler Schmidtbauer; grandparents, Edwin and Jane Jankowsky and Leo and Eleanor Schmidtbauer; and great-nephew, Kayden Hansen.

The Day God Called You Home

God looked around His garden and found an empty space.

Then He looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.

*He put his arms around you,
lifted you to rest.*

*God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.*

*He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.*

So He closed your weary eyes, and whispered, "Peace be thine".

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*
