Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say,
or bought us food and drinks, or perhaps you prayed.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you.

God Bless You!
With Love,
James, Reneica & Family

Obituary

Sis. Kathy Hall

Kathy Hall was born July 10th, 1949, to the late Emma Sue Jordan and the late Frank Harris Jr. of Fordyce, Arkansas. She was the second of 3 children. Kathy received her early childhood education from Calhoun County School District. She accepted Christ at an early age while attending Enon Baptist Church.

Her mother, Emma Sue moved to Las Vegas in 1964, with Kathy soon following in 1967. Emma Sue married John D. Jordan in 1964 and from that union, Kathy, along with her sister Eddie Mae and brother Freddie, experienced agape love from 'Papa', a wonderful father who 'stepped- up'. On June 12th, 1970, Kathy and James Walker, Sr. were married for 10 blessed years.

She worked at Lady Luck with her sister Eddie Mae and later moved to the 4 Queens and Union Plaza. She retired from the Excalibur Hotel after 18 years and eventually rejoined the workforce at Walmart and the Clark County School District.

Kathy was a devoted and involved mother of 2, grandmother of 3 and great-grandmother of 3. Spending time with her family, laughing, & cooking were some of her favorite pastimes. Kathy lived on the same street as her parents, son, daughter and grandchildren. For well over 20 years, they all shared the love of cooking and routinely rotated cooking dinner for the bunch 'family style.' This tradition is still going strong today. She is 'famously' known for her delicious spaghetti, mouthwatering sweet potatoes and delectable 'homemade' banana pudding.

Faithful describes Kathy when mentioning her membership to Greater Carver MBC. Her tenure spans well over 20 years. Faithful Usher board member, and servant on the Pastor Aide Committee. Faithful and devoted.

You are lucky to have known Kathy with her dynamic personality, funny banter as well as her unselfish heart and warm spirit – Oh, and she was never one to mince words!

Preceding her in death were her parents, John & Emma Jordan, and Frank Harris, Jr.; Ex-Husband James Walker, Sr., brothers Freddie Hall & Frank Edward Harris, sister Beverly Jackson, nephew John T. Wilson III and great niece, Naomi Pratt. Kathy's memories will be cherished by her daughter Reneica R. Green (Lee), son James Walker, Jr., grandson Donovan L. Green, granddaughter Destiney K. Green, great-grandson Amir X Green, sisters Eddie Mae Dixon (Osie), Pat Wysinger of Pine Bluff, Karen Jimmerson of Reno, NV and Vivian Neal of Milwaukee, WI., & brother Larry Harris of Pine Bluff AR & a host of nieces, nephews & friends. Kathy will surely be missed but never forgotten.

RECCESIONAL

To my Granny Kat

I miss you so much. There are many things I could say, but what I will say is you have been a pillar of support for me throughout my life. I am forever grateful for it.

The times we had together, I will forever cherish.
You are the reason I started doing dinners once a week,
just for us to be together.

You are my world and I'll think of you every day and try to instill all the wisdom and life lessons you've taught me over the years.

I can't wait to tell your great grandson Amir everything about you, like how you say would say whatever was on your mind
and didn't care who heard you.

I never thought I could love someone so hard.
This is going to be hard, but I love you so much.

Your Forever Doodabug

Dear Granny

In the same moment I cry at the thought of never seeing your face or hearing your voice, I smile knowing you are no longer in pain.
You believed in me and pushed me even when I lost faith in myself.

You loved me despite my attitude and mistakes.
I'm going to miss our car rides and conversations.

Who am I going to call to snitch on everyone?

I am going to miss you so much and hope I made you proud.

A Matriarch's Life & Legacy

They say that life is fleeting...
Fading faster than time, passing us by in the night.
A cursory for eternity

They say you've got just one so
'Live, YOLO, be the master of your fate'
Steer, the ship of your soul.

What they don't say is
The fleeting vessel docks in a port that is far beyond the confines of time.

The nights that seem to ephemerally pass are Intentional chapters in the physical realm
That connects this thing
This tale, this precursor to the Everlasting Never Ending Posthumous Energy Ascending and transcending
Time, Place & Matter

You see, it takes a spirit to truly live, a spirit that nourishes anchoring themselves in the Grace & Mercy of the Divine

A spirit that unselfishly passes this practice on generation after generation after generation.

It takes a Spirit to truly live.

A spirit that cultivates matriarchs and reminds the Prince that they too are King.
It takes a spirit to truly live. Personifying timelessness class with a sprinkle of sass.

It takes a Spirit to live a bossy life because, to be the captain of your soul means to guide with confidence and live

Kathy did what most will never do, she LIVED.
Unapologetically and graciously. She LIVED. BOLD and BEAUTIFULLY
She loved Inflexibly and sacrificially
She served invariably and unyielding
So yes, this vessel is fleeting but,

Kathy has proved that what 'they said' can be conquered
An intentional life is grounded in the Spirit, Spirit establishes legacy, legacy spans eternity

How will you live
life and legacy?
