Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that anyone could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so much whatever the part.

The family of Jesse Lee Fuller, III.

Jesse "Ness" Lee Fuller III

Jesse "Ness" Lee III, born on October 27, 1989, in Denver, Colorado, was a radiant spirit whose laughter and joy brightened the lives of who knew him. The beloved son of Jessie and Nina Fuller, Ness grew up alongside his two cherished sisters, Khai and Lani, creating a tapestry of love and laughter within their family.

From a young age, Ness had a zest for life that was infectious. His love for McDonald's Happy Meals – a culinary delight that could spark joy and, perhaps, a bit of negotiation at home if he didn't get his way! His early years were filled with innocent competitions with his best friend, Lanita "Treci" Russell, who would triumph in the race to learn to tie their shoes first. Their enduring friendship blossomed throughout their lives, a testament to the deep bonds he nurtured.

Ness embraced education with vigor, earning a place in the National Honor Society during his middle and high school years through the Denver and Aurora Public Schools. He embarked on a fulfilling career in logistics, devoting over eight years to FedEx before his passion for people led him to a position as a gate agent at Frontier Aviation, a role that suited his vibrant personality perfectly.

A father to his two precious boys, Josiah and Jayceon, whom he shared with Mercedes (Lively) Scales, Jesse's proudest moments came from his role as a parent. His children were the apples of his eye, and nothing brought him more happiness than being their dad. With a heart full of faith, he accepted Jesus Christ as his savior at an early age and found a spiritual home at Shorter A.M.E. Church.

Jesse's love extended far beyond his immediate family. He shared an especially close bond with his father, always knowing he could reach out for support. Known for his loyalty and sense of humor, Jesse was the life of any gathering, ready to "TURN UP" at a moment's notice. His playful spirit earned him the affectionate nickname "Petty Murphy," as he basked in the joy of making others laugh and cherished the simplest pleasures of life. A devoted fan of the Patriots football team, he approached life with the same enthusiasm he had for his favorite game – always ready to bet, and only paying when he emerged victorious.

Even as time pulled his family across distances, the connection with his older brother, LeJesse, remained unbreakable, a bond evident to all who witnessed it. Jesse lived each day like a celebration, always prompting spontaneous outbursts to strangers telling them "Hey it's my birthday" even if it was August, such was his love for life.

Jesse leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter that will resonate through the lives of those he cherished: his parents, Jessie Lee Fuller Jr. and Nina Joanne Fuller; his beloved children, Josiah and Jayceon; siblings Khailaya Staten, Kualani Staten, and LeJesse Sears; three nieces, a nephew, and a host of uncles, aunts, and friends whose lives he touched.

His memory will forever be etched in our hearts, a gentle reminder of a life lived to the fullest. May Jesse "Ness" Lee Fuller III rest in eternal peace, surrounded by the love he so freely gave to others.

As I sit in heaven
and watch you everyday
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away
I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you while you weep
I see you wish the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see
So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me
