

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Saylor regarding this Sabbath's Seminar

What if our most frightening emotions were meant to be windows into the character of God Himself? What if the church and culture have steered us away from the emotions our relationships need most today? While “good people” rarely talk about these things, we will this weekend!! Join Richie and Timi Brower for a fun, raw, thoughtful look at our two most powerful emotions. If you have even one relationship with another human being... this event is for you!

Join us at the times posted below. I look forward to exploring this subject with you.
~Pastor Eric

This Weekend: February 8, Richie & Timi Brower: Relationship Seminar

Next Weekend: February 15, Pastor Eric Saylor: Blessed Be: A series on the Beatitudes continues with; “Blessed are the Merciful”.

Eastgate SDA Church Happenings!!

Up-date on Asher & Reagan Peterson

We very much appreciate the prayers, kind words, and excellent support from our friends and family in our season of stress. It means a lot to us knowing that you care. Regular transfusions of blood products have kept Asher fairly healthy. Even so, he is susceptible to viruses and infections, thus he is not able to go out in public or receive visitors. This is hard on a very social child, but we admire how well he is handling these restrictions as well as how well he is dealing with all of the medical tests and pricks he has had to go through. His family is also being very careful not to bring home any illnesses, so we may not get too close when we see you.

As many know we were planning to be in Seattle for Asher to receive a bone marrow transplant and Reagan was to be his donor. Due to new information from test results, Asher's medical team has advised us that a non-related bone marrow donor is better for his situation. Within days of starting the search, we learned that there are many potential donors in the database. It may take a few months longer than we expected to identify the best willing donor, but the doctors are still confident that we can restore Asher's health to the point that he is no longer dependent on weekly transfusions.

If you are interested in helping people with blood diseases similar to Asher's and are between the ages of 18 and 45, we encourage you to check out bethematch.org. It only takes a cheek swab to be added to the database of potential donors. It could change someone's life in the future. They are especially short on donors with genetic types other than those descended from northern European ancestry, but anybody could potentially be honored with the opportunity to donate life giving stem-cells. We also encourage people to donate blood to your local blood bank. We are very grateful for all of the donors who have provided Asher with the blood products he needs.

~Delvin and Sara Peterson

Eastgate SDA Church – Red Cross Blood Drive in Honor of Asher Peterson

The Eastgate Seventh-day Adventist Church sponsors blood drives just about every other month. February 12 will be our next day that we will host the American Red Cross. Our usual average number of units of blood collected averages about 16 units. Some individuals can contribute a whole unit themselves; some only contribute a half unit. Our schedule is normally only about 60% full in terms of the number of time slots we have for donors to come.

In honor of Asher Peterson, we would like to challenge our members and friends and see if we can fill our schedule with donors and collect 30 units or more for the day!

<https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/donation-time> to sign-up! Thank you!!!

Richie and Timi Brower to conduct a Relationship Seminar at Eastgate SDA Feb. 7 & 8

Anger and Desire shape the relational landscape of our lives like glaciers and water shape the earth. So why don't we talk about them more?

Join Richie and Timi Brower as they discuss anger and desire in the heart of God, why connecting to our own desire is so frightening, how anger and desire collide in the bedroom, and God's design for anger. You'll laugh, cry, and wrestle with your understanding of the character of God.

There will be three sessions as follows:

- Friday night will start at 6:30pm
- They will present for church, the service starts at 10:45am
- There will be a potluck so bring some food and stay for the afternoon presentation!
- Sabbath afternoon presentation will start at 2:00pm

Who are these people?

Richie is a husband, and a daddy as well as an ordained pastor, and the chaplain of a local Christian radio station where he hosts a regular radio show. He loves working outside, especially getting dirty in the garden or cutting firewood. His interests include sustainable living, furniture building, growing and storing food as well as playing in the snow. He enjoys writing and teaching. He loves connecting scripture to life in practical ways.

Timari (Timi) brings together her experiences as a mom, wife and Christian therapist to illustrate how a personal God can heal our hurts and transform the relationships we value most. She holds a BA in Theology and a MA in Counseling. She enjoys quiet moments (because with three man-children, they are quite rare) time with girlfriends, reading, and most things that include a beach. They currently live in NE Washington with their three sons where they enjoy hiking, camping, swimming, gardening, snowshoeing, sledding, and exuberant life with boys.

 No Eastgate e-NewsLetter will be published for February 15**

The church secretary and editor of the weekly e-NewsLetter will be out of town next week so there will be no edition created for the weekend of February 15. A new up-dated letter will be delivered for the weekend of February 22. Thank you!
