A Message from the Principal...

Dear Northwest Christian School Parents,

Welcome back to school!

I pray that despite the turmoil circulating in our world, you and your family had a peaceful and healthy holiday season. Nothing can beat the energy of having students back in the building.

As we look at the near future, our NCS educators are looking forward to the winter session of MAP Growth tests. These assessments help our teachers track students' academic growth and precisely pinpoint areas of growth.

It has been fascinating to me as I work with other schools, the county, and the state in the areas of Covid-related school policy. The infection rates on our county are currently at an all-time high. However, because of the soaring success of private schools during our fall session, we have earned the confidence of our government officials and by the grace of God, we will finish out this year free from any further disruptions to in-person learning. What got us here has been a strict adherence to the guidelines, and this strict adherence will also be the vehicle that will see us through.

Thank you all for partnering with us on this journey. It has been a wild ride, but we have also become a close school family in the process.
